"Our group is multifaceted, and we come with varying amounts of experience in calligraphy from decades to a few years. We work in various styles, media, and techniques, following our bliss with a pen, brush, or chisel in hand in an attitude of sharing. We are committed to studying together once a week, practicing at home, producing new work for upcoming shows, challenging ourselves, and encouraging each other as we continue to travel on very different calligraphic paths." - The Mendocino Calligraphy Study Group

Second Saturday Reception
July 8th, 5 - 7 pm
